COLLEGE OF EDUCATION

MASTER OF EDUCATION IN INSTRUCTIONAL LEADERSHIP

WHY UIC?

Earn a degree at one of the most diverse universities in the nation in the third largest city in the United States. Chicago is a cultural, sporting, business, and educational hub; ensuring that no matter what the chosen path of study, by being in Chicago, there will be opportunities that wouldn't be possible anywhere else.

WHY AN MED IN INSTRUCTIONAL LEADERSHIP?

The UIC College of Education has prepared educators, leaders, and policymakers to make good on the promise of public education in schools and communities. The Instructional Leadership MEd program provides flexible coursework designed to align with students' personal and professional aspirations, ensuring that graduates are well-equipped to pursue careers in their ideal field.

STUDENT CHOICE

Students in the MEd program can choose from one of two areas of concentration: Educational Studies or Policy Studies. It is required that applicants have a GPA of at least 2.75 for Educational Studies and 3.0 for Policy Studies.
